

QGOG Constellation IDRs and senior notes rating reaffirmed and outlook revised to positive

Luxembourg, October 20, 2014 – QGOG Constellation hereby announces that the risk-rating agency Fitch Ratings has affirmed QGOG Constellation S.A.'s foreign and local currency Issuer Default Ratings (IDRs) and US$ 700 million senior unsecured notes due 2019 at 'BB-'. The Rating Outlook has been revised to Positive from Stable.

According to the Fitch Rating report, the positive outlook reflects the ability of the Company to deleverage as the debt at the operating companies (OpCos) rapidly amortizes and EBITDA increases to expected levels, as well as the expectation of partial elimination of structural subordination as some OpCo debt is paid in full over the next two years.
